

AGENDA FOR HUMANITY

5 CORE RESPONSIBILITIES

PLATFORM FOR ACTION, COMMITMENTS AND TRANSFORMATION

During the first-ever World Humanitarian Summit, held from 23 to 24 May 2016 in Istanbul, world leaders came together with a common purpose: to reaffirm their commitment to humanity and chart a course to address the suffering of the 130 million people affected by humanitarian crisis and the millions more living in constant risk and vulnerability.

At the Summit, UN Member States, NGOs, private sector companies, UN entities and a diverse range of other stakeholders announced thousands of commitments to turn UN Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon's Agenda for Humanity and its five core responsibilities into reality.

To sustain the spirit of shared responsibility and the collaboration demonstrated at the Summit and to ensure continued progress in the advancement of the Agenda for Humanity, the online Platform for Action, Commitments and Transformation (PACT) has been created.

PACT will serve as a dynamic advocacy and implementation tool for all stakeholders in their efforts to advance the Agenda for Humanity and the commitments made at the Summit and to foster new commitments and partnerships.

Two types of commitments were gathered before and during the Summit. Participants were invited to align themselves with 32 core commitments, derived from stakeholder consultations and anchored in the Agenda for Humanity. They were also invited to make additional individual or joint commitments to help achieve the Agenda for Humanity.

ABOUT THE PLATFORM

Commitments that have been submitted to the World Humanitarian Summit secretariat in writing will be publicly accessible on the on-line platform. The platform will:

- showcase and explore commitments and initiatives by core responsibilities, commitment types (policy, operational or financial), stakeholders, regions and key words
- allow users to learn more and connect with the initiatives, partnerships and alliances launched during the World Humanitarian Summit
- enable stakeholders to identify, track and partner with other stakeholders who have made similar commitments

UPCOMING FEATURES

The platform's features will be expanded and updated over the next months and year to:

- allow stakeholders to self-report on implementation progress and feed into annual synthesis report on progress
- record how commitments are turned into action to deliver better for people across the globe
- empower stakeholders to make new commitments in support of the Agenda for Humanity
- catalyze new partnerships and collaborations to advance the outcomes of the Summit and the Agenda for Humanity
